IV.

Factual Background

On March 16, 2017, Amanda Thomas was traveling westbound on North Loop East in Houston, Texas. Schweinsberg was also traveling westbound on North Loop East when he suddenly and unexpectedly failed to maintain his single lane of traffic steering his truck into the lane to his left. Schweinsberg's abrupt lane change caused his left rear bumper to strike another automobile's front right side causing the automobile Schweinsberg collided with to in turn collide with Plaintiff's truck on the front right side. The collision with Plaintiff's caused serious and extreme personal injuries to the Plaintiff, for which she now sues to recover. Schweinsberg was cited for failure to maintain a single lane and such violation and action was the cause of the above described collisions.

At the time of the collisions, Schweinsberg was driving a 2009 black Chevrolet Silverado C1500 owned by Woodrow. At all times material hereto, Schweinsberg was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Woodrow. Alternatively, Schweinsberg was acting as the statutory employee, agent, vice-principle, servant and/or representative of Woodrow.

V.
Causes of Action

Schweinsberg was negligent in the operation of his motor vehicle and his negligence was a proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries. Schweinsberg's actions and omissions constituting negligence include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. failing to keep a proper lookout;
- b. failing to maintain a single lane of traffic;
- c. failing to take proper evasive action;
- d. failing to yield the right of way; and
- e. in driving inattentively.

Each of these acts and omissions, singularly or in combination with others, constituted negligence which proximately caused the occurrence made the basis of this action and Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

At the time of the collision Schweinsberg was acting as the employee, statutory employee, agent, servant, and/or representative of Woodrow, in the course and scope of his employment. As such, Woodrow is vicariously liable for the negligent actions and omissions of Schweinsberg described above pursuant to the doctrine of Respondeat Superior.

Additionally, Woodrow is liable for its own actions and omissions constituting negligence. Woodrow was negligent in the hiring, training, retention, and supervision of Schweinsberg which was a proximate cause of the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff. Woodrow failed to provide safe working conditions for its employees/agents, including Schweinsberg, which proximately caused the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

VI.

Damages

Defendants' acts and omissions were a proximate cause of the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff. Defendants are liable for all Plaintiff's injuries and actual damages, jointly and severally, as described more fully herein.

Plaintiff hereby seeks to recover all damages, both past and future, to which she may show herself justly entitled under Texas law, including, but not limited to, past and future medical expenses; physical pain; mental anguish; physical impairment; loss of earnings; loss of earning capacity; and loss of household services.

VII.

Jury Trial Requested

Plaintiff requests a jury trial and has paid the applicable jury fee with the filing of this Petition.

VIII.
Written Discovery

Pursuant to Rule 194, Defendants are requested to disclose, within fifty (50) days of service of this request, the information or material described in Rule 194.2(a)-(l).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that Defendants be cited to appear and answer and that on final trial Plaintiffs have:

- a. Judgment against the Defendants, jointly and severally, for past and future damages permitted under Texas law and for a sum in excess of the minimum jurisdictional limits of the Court, with interest at the maximum legal rate until judgment;
- b. Interest after judgment at the maximum legal rate until paid;
- c. Costs of suit; and

d. Such other and further relief to which the Plaintiff may be justly entitled.
